

ICME-14 Memorandum
June 19th, 2020
(Revised: December 1st, 2020)

Due to the global pandemic caused by COVID-19, ICMI and ICME-14 organizing committee have decided, after careful discussion and consultation, to postpone the original session and hold ICME-14 during July 11th–18th, 2021 at East China Normal University (Putuo campus). Relevant arrangements are summarized as follows:

1. All executed practices continue to be valid (including registration, contributions, payment, TSG paper and poster's review and acceptance and etc.)
2. Registration system remains open all along during this state of emergency. Address for registration is <https://reg.icme14.org/login>.
3. Payment channel will re-open on September 1st, 2020.
  - ▶ Fully paid before (inclusive) March 31st, 2021, RMB 3 500;
  - ▶ Fully paid between April 1st and May 31st, 2021, RMB 3 800;

If you plan to apply for the solidarity fund, please submit the paper/poster before mid-December 2020 to allow enough time for the peer-review process. If you do NOT plan to apply for the solidarity fund, please submit the paper/poster before March 31st, 2021. Detailed operation instructions please see updates on our website.
5. New proposals for organizing Discussion Groups and Workshops are also welcome. Please send emails to DG@icme14.org and WS@icme14.org respectively to submit proposal.

The new round of application is only open to attendees who have never submitted application before. For application form, please see <https://www.icme14.org/static/en/news/60.html?v=1590631349483>.
